

Kenya Revolution Movement Must Remain Leaderless

– As We Prepare for the FINAL Mother & Father of all Protests

There's infighting among some people in the Liberate Kenya Movement.

Not surprised that Ruto & his foreign masters would eventually find a way to infiltrate the Movement.

That was bound to happen at some point.

That is why the only way The Peoples' Revolution will succeed, is if it remains LEADERLESS, PARTYLESS & TRIBELESS.

This is NOT optional.

It is either that, or Ruto & his corrupt cronies win.

Look at it this way: If 90% of Kenyans support The Revolution (maybe around 30 million adults), there is no way they can buy even 5% of these PATRIOTS.

NAIVETY is to think that Wananchi's opponent is just Ruto.

The First African President to sit on the Oval Authority Seat.

This man is just anointed from heaven 🙏

OPPONENT is the POWERS behind Ruto – Western Powers that say he is their 'Top Ally' in Africa, and the Global Deep State including Mossad & its subsets.

No single person, or small group of persons can take on these entities and win.

IMPOSSIBLE.

In fact, the reason The Movement so RATTLED Ruto & his foreign godfathers in June, was because it was LEADERLESS.

They couldn't find a way to infiltrate or sabotage it.

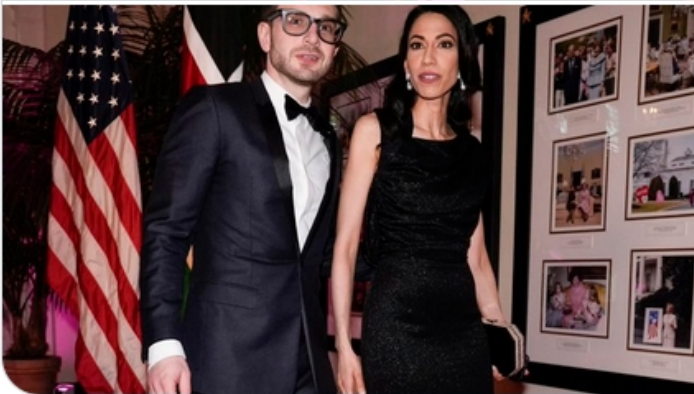

And that is why Ruto's regime chose violence – kidnappings, disappearances & murders.

Going Forward: Kenyans who want the country liberated from the crooks in power, are roughly in 2 groups;

(a) Those who believe this can be done through elections;

(b) Those who believe this can only be done via The Peoples' Revolution.

I belong in (b), and will explain why this is the only option.

Those who believe (a) can work, should explain how that can be accomplished.

(i) Ruto & his foreign godfathers have CAPTURED Parliament, the Political 'Opposition', the Church, the Labour Unions...

Under such conditions, how can a patriotic electoral commission – that would supervise free & fair elections – be established?

My opinion is that it is IMPOSSIBLE.

(ii) Ruto's regime has abducted and murdered a lot of innocent citizens, just because a person participated in a lawful demo, or said something legal on social media that they didn't like.

No ruler can form a secret police unit to kill perceived opponents if he has any plans to ever leave power.

Therefore, Ruto believes he will rule Kenya for life.

How do you expect such a tyrant to be removed from power through elections?

CONCLUSION

The corrupt KK regime has formally declared that, their top 'economic policy' is to lobby foreign governments to import Kenyan workers.

Therefore, Ruto has ipso facto admitted that, under his watch, Kenya has become a FAILED STATE.

Every patriot who believes the country can, and must be saved, must support The Peoples' Revolution – The FINAL Mother & Father of all Protests.

The Leaderless Movement must plan differently from previous protests – The date for this Final & 100% successful protest must not be announced, unless there is reason to believe that more than a million people will show up in Nairobi streets on that day.

The June 25th March on Parliament that almost toppled the corrupt KK regime, was planned only about 10 days in advance.

Let The FINAL Mother & Father of all Protests be planned for at least 3 weeks in advance – so there is time to publicise it, until that will be the only topic of discussion across the country, for at least 7 days before the actual date.

Once more than 1 million people turn out in Nairobi streets to demonstrate for a free, democratic and prosperous Kenya, Ruto & his thieving associates would be watching it Live at State House.

His security team would have no choice but to tell them: "It looks like the whole country is demanding you go...we cannot protect you from such a crowd".

President William Ruto is doing the best job that he can in the current difficult economic situation. There is a tough economic environment globally, not just here in Kenya

NOTES:

1. If you are a politician, or aspiring politician - who is not in KK coalition (or is categorised as anti-Ruto) - and you are talking about 'getting ready for 2027 elections', or 'preparing for the next election', then Ruto & his foreign masters consider you their ally, regardless of how much you criticise his regime.

And they will fund you through third-parties, presenting themselves as admirers of your charisma/ideologies etc.

They will also employ their (unknown/'private')bloggers/influencers to secretly boost your presence on social media.

2. Most Kenyans have heard about the corrupt ADANI-JKIA 'deal' - Where Ruto's regime has sold the prestigious National Asset for a song, after receiving hefty bribes.

The law firm behind the 'deal'? Hamilton, Harrison & Mathews – And Ruto's son 'just happens to work there'.

Kenya cannot survive another year, with this kind of diabolical corruption going on.

(NB: In my tweet on Jul 28, 2024 'Why Ruto Must Go', I explained why only a Leaderless, Tribeless, Partyless Movement can liberate the country)
